

Jorgen Randers
Professor
Norwegian Business School BI
Oslo, Norway

Jorgen Randers (born 1945) is professor of climate strategy at the Norwegian Business School, where he works on climate issues, scenario analysis and system dynamics. He lectures widely at home and abroad on sustainable development issues – particularly climate change - for all types of corporate and non-corporate audiences.

Jorgen Randers is non-executive member of several corporate boards in Norway, including the state owned Postal Service. He also sits on the “sustainability councils” of British Telecom in the UK and The Dow Chemical Company in the US. He chaired the Commission on Low Greenhouse Gas Emissions who reported in 2006 to the Norwegian cabinet on how Norway can cut its climate gas emissions by two thirds by 2050.

He was President of the Norwegian Business School BI 1981 – 89, and Deputy Director General of WWF International (World Wide Fund for Nature) in Switzerland 1994 – 99.

He has authored a number of books and scientific papers, including “The Limits to Growth” (1972) and “Limits to Growth – The 30 Year Update” (2004).
