

European Finance Forum

Since its founding in 1989, the European Finance Forum has viewed itself as a platform and network for managers in the finance sector.

Our objective:

We want to keep our members up-to-date on current topics, trends and innovations from throughout the world of finance. At the same time, we want to provide them with the opportunity to solidify and expand their private and professional networks

The European Finance Forum is a non-profit organization. Its activities are financed exclusively through member contributions and through the support of patrons. Both the members of the Advisory Board and the Executive serve on a voluntary basis. Speakers are not compensated for their presentations.

Membership

The European Finance Forum is open to anyone who supports the goals of the organization and who is interested in a regular exchange of information on finance issues.

The European Finance Forum is eager to attract new members so that the exchange of information and ideas can remain lively and interesting. We therefore offer personal memberships, corporate memberships and young professional memberships.

The annual fee for personal memberships as well as for corporate memberships is EUR 140. For companies that would like to name more than one representative as a member, the annual fee increases by EUR 100 for each additional employee.

The young professional memberships are designed for people under 30 years of age. Their annual fee is EUR 20 until they reach the age of 30.

There is a one-time admission fee of EUR 50. Half of the membership fee is due if the membership is entered into in the second half of the year. Because the European Finance Forum is a non-profit organization, membership fees are tax deductible. Membership applications, including information on data protection, can be found on the Forum's website: www.europeanfinanceforum.org.

If you are interested in becoming a member, you are welcome to talk to your Regional Executive or the member of the Central Executive. You can also send us an e-mail at office@europeanfinanceforum.org. We look forward to hearing from you!
